

YesForHillsboroSchools PAC Endorsement Information and FAQs

What does an endorsement mean?

The YesforHillsboroSchoolsPAC would like to use your name (and/or the name of a business, PTA, or advocacy group you are authorized to represent) in our campaign materials to demonstrate the widespread community support for the school bond. This includes permission to use your name on our website, in Washington County's Voter Pamphlet and on social media. We request that you fill out the attached form to document your approval of our use of your name.

When is the form due?

At your earliest convenience! Please return the forms to the campaign by Friday, September 8th to give us time to prepare for Washington County's deadline for the Voters Pamphlet Statements.

How do I fill out the form:

1) Please download the form available at this link:
